Address: ‘The Old Vicarage’, Lyonshall, Herefordshire HR5 3LL. Field Number: ‘307’ { The “Parson’s Plock” }. This land belonged to “The Church” before the ‘The Reformation’ of 1536-39 AD.

Access: Via ‘Permissive Footpath’ No. LZ16. Access only on foot through the gate to the North West of the Car Park by The Parish Church of St Michael & All Angels, Lyonshall, HR5 3LL. [Access from the A44]

The Location of “Isobel's Oak” showing The Churchyard, The ‘Permissive Footpaths’, the landowner's “permitted” footpath & ‘The Old Vicarage’ house [built in 1880 by The Ven, C. Maddison Green].

Gate on PERMITTED Footpath.

Gates on ‘PERMISSIVE Footpath’.

Gate towards ‘Castle Weir Farm’.

Isobel Hutton, a ‘native’ of this Parish, thinks that this Oak Tree is one of the best examples of an ‘English Oak’ [Quercus robur] that she knows of. She and “Dylan” walk past it regularly [thanks to the landowner who has provided the ‘Dog friendly’ gates]. Isobel plans to record this tree on a monthly basis throughout the year for ‘The Lyonshall Country Diary 2019’.
